

Optional Tours

December 3rd

Option 1: Wheat Marketing Center

Whether it's noodles or steambreads for Asia, or flatbreads for Egypt, the Wheat Marketing Center will be conducting the objective research necessary to promote the wheat industry to bakers and millers worldwide.

Join WMC Director David Shelton or one of the multi-cultural guides as they introduce you to the many processes used to determine the characteristics needed for international end-use products.

Option 2: Widmer Brewery

The Widmer Brewery is well-known throughout the region for their flagship product - America's Original Hefeweizen - a golden unfiltered wheat beer that sets the standard for all other wheat beers.

Tours will last about 2 hours each plus transportation via motor coach from the Doubletree Hotel on Friday afternoon. Cost per person: $20
(Subject to cancellation due to nonparticipation)
