

Featured Conference Speakers

MOTIVATIONAL ENTERTAINER

Steve Gilliland, "Enjoy the Ride"

Through humor and reality-tested techniques, Steve Gilliland reveals the way to face conflicting demands in an unforgiving business environment that keeps getting tougher.

Fasten your seatbelt and hold on as one of North America's premier speakers shows you how to never lose your passion, cure your destination disease and redefine your focus.

Steve will present his general session address during the luncheon on Thursday, and a workshop, 'A License to Chill' in the afternoon.

HUMORIST/ENTERTAINER

Damian Mason, "Humor for the Heart of Agriculture"

Damian Mason has been a professional speaker, corporate event entertainer, and author since 1994. He's performed at over 1,300 corporate and association meetings in 49 states and 7 foreign countries.

Damian's programs are the result of a quick wit and a willingness to glean humor from all sources. He will provide the entertainment for dinner and the Benefit Auction Thursday evening.

Senator Larry Craig (Ret.), Idaho

With 28 years in the United States Senate and House of Representatives, Senator Larry Craig became recognized nationally as a voice of common sense who advocated conservative solutions to our nation's problems, and a specialist in issues specific to the West.

His topics will include the latest updates on Congressional Elections Results, Farm Bill, Energy, Environmental issues and the Western Legacy Alliance.

Jim Miller, Under Secretary for Farm and Foreign Agricultural Services, Washington, D.C.

Mr. Miller served as president of the National Association of Wheat Growers (NAWG) in 1987, and was its vice president for government relations from 1995-99.

He will present on the development of the 2012 Farm Bill and the implementation of the 2008 Farm Bill Friday morning, December 3rd during the General Session.

Register online NOW at www.idahograin.org